

How my own experience set me on the path to Hereafter

Hereafter became a reality shortly after I suffered the most difficult moment of my life, the passing of my Dad in 2017.

His death came as a huge shock to us all, but especially my mother. I took responsibility for the organisation of his affairs in the days and weeks after. Despite being a Chartered Accountant, with decades of diverse commercial and legal experience, the entire process truly opened my eyes to the difficulties and strain that it can put on loved ones.

Seeing the pain on my mother's face as each letter arrived in the days and weeks after the funeral inspired me to use my expertise to assist and ease the burden on others going through challenging times.

– Marie Ramsbottom,
Founder & CEO

here after

Hereafter, here for you before and after

Helping to provide peace of mind, clarity and time for what truly matters in life.

---

Call us today for a confidential no obligation chat and let Marie and her team give you all the guidance you need.

Contact Us

a Ratheniska, Stradbally, Co. Laois, Ireland
t 00 353 85 257 1645
e marie@hereafter.ie
w hereafter.ie

here after

Assisting you during life changing events

Helping to provide peace of mind, clarity and time for what truly matters in life.

Why we're here

We provide all aspects of expertise in paperwork and administration to help ease the burden on people going through life changing events.

We believe in delivering a person-centred solution to life's greatest challenges such as bereavement or other life changing events. We provide a comprehensive checklist to guide people on the many items that will need consideration. We manage all administration, phone calls and appointments with relevant authorities as necessary. Our expertise aids in any banking, legal, financial and taxation issues which require attention. The service can be availed of during any stage in life.

Above all, we offer trust and compassion. We alleviate the bureaucratic burden which exists during this time. We provide peace of mind by giving clients back the time which is so important to aid in the transition process of any life changing event.

Our mission

We believe in delivering person-centred assistance to life's greatest challenges. We provide all aspects of expertise in paperwork and administration to help ease the burden on people going through life changing events. Our expertise aids you in any banking, legal, financial and taxation issues which require attention.

Before you experience loss, you don't realise how much paperwork and bureaucracy comes with it. When you're working through grief it's the last thing you want to deal with, and many items get missed. Marie and her team took all that worry away and gave us more time to spend with loved ones during such a difficult time.

Services

Hereafter offer a range of services depending on our client's circumstances, including the following:

- 1. Pre-Bereavement Planning
Getting your affairs in order and easing the bereavement process for your loved ones.
- 2. Post-Bereavement Facilitation
Helping navigate the bureaucracy of bereavement.
- 3. Nursing Home Facilitation
Assisting with processes surrounding nursing home schemes.
- 4. Corporate Employee Assistance
Facilitating corporations wishing to educate their employees in planning for their future.

Call Marie and her team today for a confidential no obligation chat.